Stallings.
- 1785 Ann Braddy, daughter of Mason Braddy married Edward Mintz.

1791

wife of Mason
Priscilla Braddy: Account estate, examined by John J. Wheadon, William Gay and Thomas Wrenn.

I conclude that Olive was William's second wife, and that she was the mother of the younger Patrick, (he named a daughter after her) and probably Mason, if they lived close enough to each other to appraise together.
Also, Mason appraised her. Her will says "the balance due to the children" properly. EDGECOMB COUNTY

1781

Patrick Braddy died. He left his daughter Anne Braddy, five shillings proclamation money, daughters Olive Braddy, Margaret Braddy and Mary Braddy, each of them a feather bed and a cow and calf. The rest of the estate to son Job Braddy. William Hackney was made executor.

JOHNSTON COUNTY

From the Johnston County Bible Records T8199

Olive Braddy, daughter of Patrick Braddy and his wife, was born July 1765?
Margaret Braddy 1770
William R. Braddy was born January 15, 1795
Job Braddy 1767
Mary Braddy 1773

Note: I have not done much work on the Johnston County Brady/Braddys, therefore I do not know where this will lead. It does, however, indicate that one of Patrick Braddy's children went to Johnston County.

Note: The source material I used, except for the Bible were Cavaliers and Pioneers, Abstracts of Wills for the two counties, Court Records for the two counties, Marriages of Isle of Wight.

Note: Virginia and NC border land records were confused in the early years. I believe that is the situation with Ellis' land.
